

Experienced Worker Route (EWR) Terms and Conditions

Booking

Banham Academy will only accept bookings in writing via email – in making such bookings clients accept our terms and conditions.

Before booking the assessment day, please ensure you have successfully passed the ECS HS&E Assessment and hold the Level 2 FESS Operative Card.

Provisional bookings may be made but they must be cancelled or confirmed at least 14 days before the start date of the assessment or else they will be considered a firm booking and so will be subject to these terms and conditions.

Invoices will be sent via email to the name and address provided when booking and must be paid before the pre-assessment stage and assessment day begin. These are non-refundable.

Fees

Initial EWR assessment - £1200 payable in two stages, £600 before pre-assessment stage and £600 before the assessment day.

Pre-assessment stage to include:

Candidate portfolio and support to complete.

Candidate portfolio assessment and verification, needed to book the EWR assessment day.

Mock theory tests.

Practice for the Professional Interview.

Support on the system/s that will be used on the practical assessment.

Safe isolation process support.

Review meetings to assess readiness.

All the above will take place online.

Assessment day at London or Derby Academy premises.

Certification.

Resits will result in fees dependent on the specific section that was failed.

Joining Instructions and Attendance

Candidates will receive joining instructions via email to the email address provided when booking. It is the responsibility of the individual making the booking to ensure joining instructions are received by the candidate.

Failure to attend the assessment will be treated as late cancellation and result in no refund being given.

Cancellations and Amendments

All requests for cancellation of the assessment day must be received in writing. Changes will become effective on the date of written confirmation being received.

Cancellations made between 1 and 14 calendar days (inclusive) before the start date of the assessment will result in no refund being given.

Candidate's assessment paperwork and results will not be transmitted to the certification body for certification until full payment for the assessment has been received.
